Jersey City Recreation Department to Host an Indoor Soccer Clinic

JERSEY CITY – Mayor Jerramiah T. Healy, members of the Municipal Council, and the Jersey City Department of Recreation will present an Indoor Soccer Clinic from 4 to 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, October 30, 2008 at the Jersey City Armory, 678 Montgomery Street.

The Indoor Soccer Clinic, conducted by Jersey City Department of Recreation coaches, is open to boys and girls, ages 8 to 14. The clinic will provide participants with instruction by players from Bergen Catholic High School (Boys) and Immaculate Heart Academy (Girls).

For the clinic proper athletic attire should be worn and no cleats are permitted due to indoor surface.

“Conducting sports clinics, such as this one, instills good moral values in our children,” said Mayor Healy. “Aside from developing physical skills, sport activities teach children lifelong skills such as self-esteem and sportsmanship. Participating in sports imparts values that are the behavioral foundation of our future leaders.”

The Recreation Department runs one soccer league for children, which is called the Jersey City Recreation Department Soccer Organization and subsidizes two other children's leagues, Hans Soliz Soccer League and the Jersey City Soccer Association. In total, there are approximately 1,000 participants.

All media inquiries should be directed to Jennifer Morrill, Press Secretary to Mayor Jerramiah T. Healy at 201-547-4836 or 201-376-0699.
